Dear Friends and Family,

This summer I have been given the opportunity to serve on a mission trip to (Zambia), Africa. I will spend (2 weeks) working with a team of college students and young adults to minister in urban townships and rural villages with Africa Freedom Mission.

Many of the people in these villages and townships eek out an existence by practicing trades (i.e. farming, welding, plumbing, electrical, etc.). In these communities, there is little Christian influence and very few Christian believers. Over the past few years, Africa Freedom Mission has partnered with local churches and ministries in an attempt to build long-term relationships with some of the people in these areas.

Through outreach using the Jesus Film, teaching, sharing their own personal stories of faith and praying over the sick, past teams have started to make headway for the gospel. Men, women and children have professed their own faith in Jesus and leaders have

In (MONTH), I will be joining Africa Freedom Mission to continue their work in Zambia as they seek to minister to these dear people. But to get there, I will need your help. AFM requires that each team member raise (TRIP COST) to cover the cost of airfare, food, lodging and other expenses. I need a team of financial and prayer supporters to help make this trip a reality. Would
